

Changing Climates Evolving Humans
Event on 11th November 2006 at British Museum, London

This is the provisional programme and some names may change

10.00	Coffee and registration
10.30	Professor Alan Thorpe NERC Chief Executive	The importance of human evolution
10.45	Professor Clive Gamble Programme Chair	Human evolution today: 150 years after the first Neanderthal
11.00	Professor Chris Stringer	Our African origins: fossil and genetic evidence
11.20	Dr Danielle Schreve	The Lynford mystery: Neanderthal mammoth hunters in Norfolk
11.40	Led by Marek Kohn	Questions and Answers: Science photo diary: Human evolution in the field Project members
12.30	LUNCH
1.40	Professor Nick Barton	Prehistoric humans and climate crisis in North Africa
2.00	Dr Nick Ashton	Moving north in Europe
2.20	Led by Marek Kohn	Questions and answers: Science demonstration Making stone tools with Phil Harding of C4s Time Team
3.30	TEA
4.00	Dr Silvia Gonzalez	The first Americans, mammoths and volcanoes: new data from Mexico
4.20	Dr Marta Lahr and Dr Mike Petraglia	Corridors out of Africa and Surviving the biggest volcanic eruption ever
4.40	Led by Marek Kohn	Final questions and answers: Where do we come from?
5.15	Conference closes	